We have grown and evolved exponentially in the past year, the biggest of these changes being our merge with Sputnik Snowboard Shop, meaning we now supply snowboard equipment in addition to all our usual stock.

Throughout this change we have not lost sight of our integrity and our ethos. We are a family run business with heart and soul, passion and commitment. We are not a chain store and we never intend to be. We live to serve the ski community and we will continue to do so because we truly believe we are the best at what we
